Highlights

Resort Information

While at Mansfield Country Resort, enjoy the on-site squash and tennis courts, work up a sweat in the gym or go for a dip in the swimming pool. The children have their own playground and swimming pool to splash in, and the whole family can enjoy a round of mini-golf and have fun in the games room. Take a stroll by the lake or even have a barbecue, there's so much to choose from. After a busy day of activities, visit the spa and relax in the sauna and hot tub. A convenience store is on-site.

Destination Highlights

Located in the state of Victoria, Mansfield is situated in the foothills of the "Australian Alps" and serves as the support town for the ski center at Mount Buller. In the summer, nearby Lake Eildon offers fishing and waterskiing, and trail biking, horseback riding, and four-wheel driving are all available in the bushland around Mansfield. Nearby, Mount Stirling and Mount Buller offer recreation year-round, including hiking and mountain biking. Come winter, take to the snowfields for downhill and cross-country skiing, or watch the Mansfield Eagles play football. Local townships offer opportunities aplenty to explore history, wineries, and regional festivals.

How to Get There

The resort is approx 200km from Melbourne's Tullamarine Airport. Travel via the Tullamarine Fwy, Western Ring Road and then the Hume Fwy. Leave the freeway at the Tallarook turn off and head for Yea. Take the road to Mansfield/ Mt Buller. 2km before Mansfield turn right into Howes Creek Road, travel 8km, then turn right at Campagnola's Road and then right into Banumum Road. The Resort is 3km on the right. From north take the Midland Hwy to Mansfield, turn right at the roundabout to Melbourne, travel approx 2km. Turn left into Howes Creek Road and then as above. V Line buses run Melbourne-Mansfield return, however there is no service to the resort.
