HighlightsResort Information

Korora Bay Village is an award-winning resort located where the mountains meet the sea at Coffs Harbour, six hours from Sydney by car. Here you will enjoy abundant bird life, magnificent gardens and a subtropical climate that allows visitors to enjoy the beautiful beaches year round. Korora Bay Village offers a solar heated swimming pool, a children's wading pool, a heated spa, tennis courts, a completely equipped game room, DVD library, boogie boards, fishing rods, board games and picnic sets.

Destination Highlights

The hinterland of Coffs Harbour has many beautiful areas to explore including Dorrigo National Park with its magnificent waterfalls and picturesque drives through Nana Glen. There's kayaking in Bongil Bongil National Park and white water rafting. Heritage Park Estate has many wild kangaroos to see in their natural habitat, or you can look toward the sea for whale or dolphin watching. Other attractions include The Big Banana, The Pet Porpoise Pool, The Butterfly House, The Honey Place, The Clog Barn, Water Rat River Cruises, and the Raleigh International Raceway.

How to Get There

The nearest international airports are in Sydney and Brisbane. From these cities fly to Coffs Harbour and take a taxi to the resort. By car take Highway 1 to Coffs Harbour, James Small Drive is directly off the Pacific Highway. If travelling from the south the turn off is approx. 1.1km north of the Big Banana on the right. If travelling from the north the turn off is approx. 200 metres on the left past the Opal Cove Resort.
